IT IS A NEW TAX W ANT

Plan of City Officials.

Will Raise Rates to Pay Increase in Licenses.

POLICYHOLDERS PAY

New Municipal Revenues Will Come From People

And Not From Out of Town Insurance Companies.

In their attempts to increase the revenues of the city by placing an ad-ditional tax on the life insurance cor-porations of Topeka, the city commisporations of Topeka, the city commissioners have been che kmated. In making up their scheduler the fire insurance companies will raise the rates in Topeka enough to make up for the extra license, say the agents.

In other words, the city commissioners attempted to reduce the taxes by raising the revenues. In doing this they made it necessary for the policy holders in Topeka to pay higher fire rates to meet the gain in corporation tax.

This information has floated into the city half following the passage of the license ordinance the other day that added about $2,000 in revenues to the city from the fire insurance com-the city from the fire insurance com-panies doing business in Topeka.

When asked this afternoon if the rumor was true, Charles E. Eldridge, general inspector and manager of the Kansas Fire Insurance Inspection of ice, admitted that the companies, when they made up their new books, would add the additional rates to the Popeka rate and make an Prerease to The fire Insurance companies have
